

The Journey Takes New Shape

Across

1. The Just War doctrine states that there must be serious prospects for the ____ of the war.(120)

5. The book of ____ includes an element of peaceful settlement of the land, in contrast with the use of military campaigns detailed in Joshua.(116)

6. In the first book of Samuel, Israel chooses their fist human ____.(119)

9. The book of Deuteronomy is set in the time just before the arrival of the Israelites in ____.(112)

10. ____ was ordered by King Josiah to be celebrated each year.(113)

11. Israelite social formation began to ____ at the Iron Age and continued to evolve to a monarchy system.(126)

12. When the Israelites are faithful to the covenant, they are ____ by the Lord.(123)

14. The time of the kings was one of even greater ____ of the covenant.(127)

15. The early Israelites were influenced by the ____ and their religion.(127)

16. The judges were leaders who were spiritually ____ by God to lead the tribal peoples.(121)

17. Samson's weakness was his foolish love for ____.(123)

19. The six historical books covered in this chapter are now known as ____ History. (112)

21. There were probably many poorly treated Canaanites who abandoned their old society and ____ with the new incoming group under Joshua.(116)

25. The events in Joshua and Judges were meant to ____ the contrast between the loss of faith which resulted in catastrophe, and the trust of the people which resulted in great feats of conquest and glory.(126)

27. People may have left the Canaanite city states because life there was ____.(125)

30. The Israelite religion was ____ in its expectations of the people.(127)

32. A main point of the Just War doctrine states that all other means of settling the dispute must be shown to be impractical or ____.(120)

35. There is a clear ____ between the book of Deuteronomy and the six books that make up Deuteronomic History.(113)

36. The pagan god of crops and livestock that the Israelites "added" to their belief of Yahweh.(127)

38. Some of the groups of "sea peoples" settled in the hills to escape new ____.(125)

39. The book of Judges suggests a more mixed ____ of peoples throughout the land, with various pagan peoples existing alongside the Israelites.(116)

40. "In ancient Israel, one who acted as a temporary military leader, as well as arbiter of disputes within and between tribes.(121)

41. Jericho illustrates how the Israelites should ____ on God over their own strength and abilities.(116)

42. The Old Testament authors ____ conventional warfare with a time when the Israelites rejected God.(119)

48. A Moabite woman who accepted the God of her Jewish husband and today is honored for her choice. (123)

50. The stories of the judges are of ____ leaders who courageously cared for the well-being of the tribes of Israel.(128)

52. One of the major complaints of the prophets of the time of the Babylonian exile was that the kings of Israel and Judah relied more on ____ with foreign nations than on God for protection against their enemies.(116)

53. Samson's ____ caused the loss of his personal strength in the same way Israel's ____ to the Lord caused a loss of their independence and power as a nation.(same word)(123)

55. "The basic social unit of the Israelite society"(127)

56. The last event described at the end of 2 Kings is the beginning of the Babylonian ____.(114)

57. All records of the Exodus experience were written many years ____ the incidents they describe actually occurred.(114)

58. ____ was most certainly a major part of the experience of the Hebrew people.(118)

59. Rejecting God as their warrior and king meant the Israelites no longer ____ God to protect them by means of miracles.(119)

60. A idol that Gideon fashioned from gold he took from a victory.(122)

61. When a judge was asked to be "king", he would remind the people that ____ alone was their king.(121)

Down

2. A radical reorientation of one's life; the religious theme found in Joshua and Judges as well as the New Testament.(128)

3. Samson's story begins with a legend of his birth, announced by an ____ to his mother.(122)

4. "Teachings of the Church that define the moral limits of warfare."(3 words)(121)

5. Biblical authors wrote that the origins of the tribes came from the twelve sons of ____.(127)

7. Deuteronomic History book use the common phrase unique to Deuteronomy about loving or following

God with all your
"____ and ____" (2 words)(112)

8. When the Israelites are not faithful to the covenant, they fall under the rule of
____.(123)

10. The sacrament of repentance and renewal which seeks to call for conversion.(129)

13. Gideon was told to ____ the number of his armies to just three hundred men.(118)

18. All records of the Exodus experience
were written during the ____ historical period.(114)

19. The book of Judges includes the
____ of judgment on Israel.(2
words)(128)

20. A main point of the Just War doctrine states that the aggressor must have ____ lasting, grave, and certain damage on the attacked
nation.(120)

21. The woman responsible for the death of Sisera.(122)

22. ____ was both a prophetess and a judge.(121)

23. Clans rose from both ____ needs for families to help each other with planting and harvest, and ____ needs for families to defend each other.(2

words)(127)

24. A great contrast between the injustice and violence of the Canaanites and the more ____ and ____ sharing of the Mosaic
law was emphasized by the prophets.(2
words)(125)

26. The regulations found in Deuteronomy were not actually put into practice until the time of King
____.(113)

28. Joshua was a ____ leader.(115)

29. The Just War doctrine bans the use of weapons which produce evils ____ than the evil being perpetrated by the aggressor nation.(120)

31. Regulations found in Deuteronomy include that the Temple is the ____ acceptable location for sacrifice on the face of the earth.(113)

33. Jesus ____ love of others with love of God.(114)

34. The term
"Deuteronomic History" arose
because the six books contain both theological ____ and actual phrases that have their roots in the book of Deuteronomy itself. (113)

37. The reason the exemptions for war are so liberal is to show that it is only the power of ____ that matters in war.(118)

40. The book of Joshua opens with a long section about the conquest of the city of
____.(115)

43. Samuel tells the people of all the things that the people will have to face when they get a human king including ____.(119)

44. The problems of the tribe can be traced to ____ to Yahweh.(128)

45. The book of Deuteronomy was added to the ____ very late in history.(113)

46. Palestine was in the ____ of the main roads that linked Egypt with Mesopotamia.(118)

47. ____ was put in charge of the people of Israel after Moses(115)

48. Samson's strength by legend came from his long hair, but in reality it was his ____ on God that was his strength.(122)

49. Groups of people defined by the geographical regions
they occupied.(127)

51. Pagan groups of people believed that the gods fought ____ the armies of the ancient world.(118)

54. When the Israelites have ____,
God takes care of them.(116)