

Catholic Morality Crossword Puzzle Chapter 6

Across

- 3. The environment has an inbuilt order and structure that we must _____. We should work with and not against this natural order.
- 6. The first two chapters of this book in the Bible offer basic instructions on how humans are to understand and steward the land, air, and sea, as well as nonhuman creation that makes up the Earth.
- 8. St. Paul writes that all of creation—not just human beings—has been redeemed by Christ’s Death and Resurrection and is “_____” for the completion of the Kingdom of God in heaven.
- 13. _____ ecology is about encountering the completeness of the natural world and the

Down

- 1. The document _____ the Earth states that we live in a sacramental world, and therefore should respect all life, work for the common good, recognize the universal purpose of created things, and exercise a preferential option for the poor.
- 2. Pet ownership can nurture within us the proper attitude of dominion rather than _____ by partnering with the natural world.
- 4. The Feast of _____ is a Jewish feast that begins five days before Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement. It reminds Jews that God alone is their protector.
- 5. The _____ effect is a term for the accumulation of certain gases in the ozone layer, created most completeness of humanity, where neither is exploited or dismissed.

14. This layer of the stratosphere protects life on Earth against the deadly ultraviolet rays of the sun. Without this layer, there would be no life on Earth.

16. Pope St. John Paul II named three considerations for living in solidarity with the ____: natural resources are not economic commodities; there are limited natural resources and not all are renewable; and a necessary awareness of human health near industrialized zones.

18. Written by Pope Francis in 2015, this landmark encyclical teaching on the environment is addressed to "every person living on this planet."

19. A micro-solution to ending the abusive practices of factory farming is choosing to eat less or no meat. ____ from meat on Fridays is a recommend practice for all Catholics.

20. ____ does not mean domination. We were not made to dominate God's creation but to govern it according to his plan.

notably by the burning of fossil fuels and production of gaseous emissions.

7. The official patron saint of ecology is St. ____ of Assisi.

9. St. ____ was a Benedictine sister who is often called the "unofficial patron saint of environmentalism."

10. The Jewish laws that prohibit meat-eating and resulted from God's covenant with Noah.

11. The ____ crisis is first of all a spiritual crisis that requires spiritual conversion. Pride, selfishness, materialism, and consumerism have led humanity to act as if God's creation is ours to do with as we want.

12. Respecting the environment stresses _____. All people on Earth are interdependent.

15. A heresy that emerged during the second century that taught that Jesus had shared secret knowledge with only a few people and, therefore, only a few people were assured salvation.

17. It was not until ____ entered the world that God allowed animals to be eaten.