

Catholic Morality Crossword Puzzle Chapter 1

Across

- 4. Procuring abortions, infanticide, failing to show compassion for the poor, and refusing to suffer with the suffering is known as the way of _____.
- 5. The _____ come from the Sermon on the Mount. They provide instructions for living a virtuous life and pursuing eternal happiness.
- 6. We need loving relationships because we are made in the image of a _____ God.
- 9. This norm affirms the value of every person as not a "means to an end," but as a sacred creation of God that should be treated with love and respect.
- 12. The foundations of Christian moral activity are derived from the _____ virtues of faith, hope, and charity.
- 14. In our almsgiving, praying, and fasting, our actions must be done with _____ and a pure heart.

Down

- 1. These human virtues are rooted in the theological _____: honesty, integrity, self-control, and consideration for others.
- 2. _____ is the key to happiness and living a moral life.
- 3. Through the gift of _____ will, humans have the ability to orient themselves towards good or evil.
- 7. The choices humans make are relational to others; they carry _____ and have consequences.
- 8. Theology of the _____ is a collection of Wednesday audiences given by Pope St. John Paul II that discuss the dignity, value, and meaning of human life.
- 10. Christianity and Catholicism propose a _____ lifestyle where Christ's love is at the center of our relationships.
- 11. Through this gift, humans can discover truth and come to recognize the voice of God.

16. The two most important ____ principles which reflect God's image in us are knowing and loving.

17. The ____ is the deepest aspect of man in which he is made in God's image.

18. Abortion, war, poverty, and racism disregard the dignity of a unique person and are an attack on human ____.

19. Human ____ is the quality of being worthy of esteem and respect by virtue of being human: to be seen as a "someone" and not a "something."

20. In a ____ culture, everything, including human beings, is considered disposable. The value of someone or something is determined by its utility in a consumer-based society.

13. By loving God and our neighbors, we obey God's ____ law.

15. At the Last ____, our glorified bodies will be reunited with our souls.