

Your Life in Christ - Chapter 10 Large

Across

2. A type of justice that protects and guarantees the common welfare
4. A type of justice that regulates relationships of exchange
7. Circumspect, diplomatic, guarded, prudent, tactful
8. Lying about others so people will make false judgments about them
10. Giving money or other material assistance to the less advantaged
11. One of the four key themes of Catholic social teaching is that ___ cannot be the only norm and sole goal of economic activity
15. Revealing a person's faults and failings to someone who did not previously know about them, and who had no need or right to know about them
16. The false claim or pretense of having admirable principles, beliefs, or feelings
19. Sadness over another person's possessions and the inordinate desire to get them for oneself

21. Humans do not have an ___ right to dominate creation
23. The value underlying the Seventh Commandment is respect for the ___ rights of others
24. False witness under oath
26. The Old Testament teaches that God is the source of ___
28. The passionate desire for riches and the power that comes from them
30. We must imitate Jesus by having a special love for the ___
31. Hiding something by pretense

33. The form of justice that applies the gospel message of Jesus Christ to the structures, systems, and laws of society
34. Pope Benedict XVI reminds us in Deus Caritas Est that the work of justice must be a fundamental norm of the ___

35. Giving excessive admiration to someone
37. Saint Augustine defined this as speaking falsehood with the intention of deceiving
38. The desire to accumulate unlimited goods
39. A cardinal and moral virtue that requires us to render to God and our neighbors what is due them by right

Down

1. For where your treasure is, there also will your ___ be
3. God made us ___ of creation

5. Giving up one's life for the sake of the truth of Jesus, his gospel, or Christian teaching
6. Being deceptive or misleading
9. Paying someone a compliment to gain a favor
12. Jesus teaches that we should desire him ___, and his Father's kingdom, and then he will give us all that we need
13. Sins revealed in the Sacrament of Reconciliation must never be revealed
14. Pleasing others so they can carry out your wishes

17. A certain detachment from earthly riches that eventually passes away
18. The Seventh Commandment deals with ___ desires

20. Another name for social justice
22. The economy exists to ___ people; people do not exist to ___ the economy (same word in both blanks)
25. Richer nations must work hard for international ___
27. This involves trickery, fraud, misleading, stealing, and lying
29. The Tenth Commandment deals with ___ desires
32. A type of justice that governs what individuals owe society as a whole
36. The Church has the Christ-commissioned ___ to take his Gospel and show people how his message should make a difference in the lives of people