Resurrection Reflections

If Christ Rose Not Again

If it be all for naught, for nothingness
At last, why does God make the world so fair?
Why spill this golden splendor out across The western hills, and light the silver lamp
Of eve? Why give me eyes to see, and soul To love so strong and deep? Then, with a pang This brightness stabs me through, and wakes within Rebellious voice to cry against all death?
Why set this hunger for eternity
To gnaw my heartstrings through, if death ends all?
If death ends all, then evil must be good,
Wrong must be right, and beauty ugliness.
God is a Judas who betrays His Son,
And with a kiss, damns all the world to hell,—
If Christ rose not again.

—Unknown soldier, killed in World War I*

Descending Theology: The Resurrection

From the far star points of his pinned extremities, cold inched in—black ice and squid ink—till the hung flesh was empty.
Lonely in that void even for pain, he missed his splintered feet,
the human stare buried in his face.
He ached for two hands made of meat he could reach to the end of.
In the corpse's core, the stone fist of his heart began to bang on the stiff chest's door, and breath spilled back into that battered shape. Now it's your limbs he comes to fill, as warm water shatters at birth, rivering every way.

On the Feast of Pentecost

Father of light, from whom every good gift comes, send your Spirit into our lives with the power of a mighty wind, and by the flame of your wisdom open the horizons of our minds.
Loosen our tongues to sing your praise in words beyond the power of speech, for without your Spirit
we could never raise our voices in words of peace or announce the truth that Jesus is Lord, who lives with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God,
for ever and ever.
Amen.
