The Value of Stories

As a group, agree on one current movie, television show, and popular book of fiction that provide insight into people your own age. If a future historian came across these media, what might they learn about your generation? Would this portrait be true or not? Choose one person to summarize your group's discussion in each area.

| Media Type    | What it says about most people's lifestyle | What it says about most people's character and values | What it says about most people's understanding of God and religion |
|---------------|--|---|--|
| Movie:        |  |   |  |
| TV Show:      |  |   |  |
