

Name _____

Encountering Jesus in the New Testament
Chapter 6 The Gospel of Matthew

Date _____

Across

- 6 Jesus accepts his confession of him as the Christ on the road to Caesarea Philippi (5)
- 7 This parable shows that despite opposition and indifference to Jesus' message, the Kingdom of Heaven will have success (5)
- 8 Jesus' final discourse in Matthew's Gospel is sometimes called the eschatological discourse from the Greek word eschaton, which means "____" (3,4)
- 9 Matthew's Gospel is known as the "____ Gospel" because it is well ordered and contains detailed teaching lessons (5)

- 12 The Gospel of Matthew contains about 80 percent of the text of this other Gospel (4)
- 13 Jesus knows the intimate connection between the Church and God's ____ (7)
- 15 The head of the Church (5)
- 18 Jesus teaches that mere ____ observance of the Law is not enough (8)
- 19 A term having to do with the end times or the "last things" (14)

Down

- 1 Matthew has the most references to the Old Testament and ____ of the four Gospels (7)
- 2 The Gospel makes both

- implicit and explicit connections between ____ and Jesus (5)
- 3 Anti-Semitism is a form of prejudice against ____ (4)
- 4 Eight blessings preached by Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount that respond to the natural human desire for happiness (10)
- 5 Scholars believe that Matthew was written in ____ sometime in the 80s for a predominantly ____-speaking Jewish Christian church (same word in both blanks) (5)
- 6 An unsubstantiated opinion or preformed judgment about an individual or group

- (9)
- 10 A short story that illustrates a moral or spiritual lesson (7)
- 11 Matthew's audience was struggling to discover how Judaism could continue now that the ____ was destroyed (6)
- 14 Matthew is the only Gospel in which the word for ____ (ekklesia) appears (6)
- 16 Matthew's genealogy presents Jesus as Israel's promised ____ (6)
- 17 A simile used by Jesus to describe his followers: "the ____ of the earth" (4)