

The study guides are detailed worksheets that are a review of an entire chapter. Each chapter is broken down into sections with page numbers showing the students where to find the information. Activities range from fill-in-the-blank, to finding the correct/incorrect statements, true or false, and short answer. These guides could be used at the end of the chapter as a review before an exam, or broken down and used after each section is discussed in class.